Close to Europe,
experiencing year round warm temperatures and exceptional sunshine, Tunisia has plenty with which to seduce golfers. Choose from ten major golf courses in contrasting landscapes, from the forests of Tabarka to the palm grove of Tozeur. These varied courses, well-designed and adaptable to different levels of play, are dotted with comfortable and well equipped club houses, and are perfectly placed in tourist destinations offering a great choice of accommodation and attractions.

Most of the Tunisian golf courses are true championship courses designed by renowned architects. An excellent occasion to rub shoulders with real sporting challenges in contrasting terrain: ravines, sea winds, varied obstacles, even sea inlets to cross over. Several golf courses have been completely renovated and equipped with automatic irrigation systems; some are subject to maintenance programmes with international consultants.

Rent your equipment on site or buy new branded equipment, rent a golf cart or caddy service, take a break in the clubhouse in a cosy lounge bar, or dine on a terrace with a panoramic view... The golf courses offer all the services necessary for you to only concern yourself with enjoying your game. Some offer veritable golf academies, with courses and numerous training facilities.

EQUIPMENT, FACILITIES and SERVICES at your fingertips

Less than two hours from Europe, Tunisia is easily accessible and several Tunisian companies offer free or reduced rates to transport golfing equipment. Depending on where you are staying, you will reach your golf course on foot from your hotel, or with a shuttle service at your disposal. Certain hotels, especially the ones who cater for golfers, offer a dedicated desk, reductions on green fees... or a special thalasso session designed for golfers.

From one REGION to another

On the wooded and contrasting coast of the Northeast, Tabarka's golf course overlooks a superb marine landscape. Close to the capital, Tunis, two courses await golfers. On the East coast, you will find a total of seven 18 hole golf courses shared among the major coastal resorts:

Hammamet, Sousse-Port El Kantaoui and Monastir.

Hills, olive groves, palm trees, pine forests and sea views make up the setting.

The island of Djerba has its own golf course in a heavenly setting. And finally, backing onto a giant oasis, the golf course at Tozeur will let show you a true Saharan experience.

TABARKA

Tabarka Golf Course

Few golf courses in the world offer the MAGICAL COMBINATION of sea and forest which makes TABARKA GOLF COURSE so charming. A small city in the Tunisian Northwest, Tabarka certainly occupies an exceptional location: its golden sandy beaches are framed by rocky spurs and forests of pine and oak. The course at Tabarka calls back to the famous Cypress Point club, in California, designed by the same architect. Framed by mountains and forests of eucalyptus, oak and Aleppo pine, it offers views across a superb landscape. Unmissable: seven holes by the Mediterranean shore which force you across sea inlets! After your game, you can enjoy a seaside cruise, an outing into the forest, or a GOOD MEAL OF SEAFOOD in the marina.

Tabarka Golf Course

TABARKA Golf Course

- 18 hole course : Par 72, 6400 metres (back tees)
- 9 hole compact course
- Area: 118 ha
- Architect: Ronald Fream
- The Clubhouse contains a Pro shop, a salon bar with an open fire, a restaurant, two salons, a banquet house and terraces overlooking the course.

GOOD to know

Tabarka is accessible by plane (international airport) or by road (180 km from Tunis, 70 km via motorway). Tabarka offers a dozen or so hotel resorts and several hotels in the centre. Scuba diving centres, marina, summer festivals (jazz and world music). Boat trips, outings into the mountainous backcountry around the village of Ain Draham in the heart of the forest. Archaeological sites in Chemtou and Bulla Regia.

TUNIS and the Coasts of Carthage

Golf de Carthage

Tunis is a city of contrasts. Its MEDINA is both full of life and a historical monument, home to modern trends and ancient histories; while the modern neighbourhoods offer shopping centres, lounges and restaurants. Twenty minutes away lie the Coasts of Carthage, coastal resort and FOCAL POINT FOR ENTERTAINMENT. The area has two golf courses. The first, CARTHAGE GOLF, is a small historic course created in 1927 and redesigned in 2013. With its lush Mediterranean vegetation and century old trees, it is an island of greenery on the doorstep of a modern city. The second, The Residence Golf Course, stretches between long sandy beaches and lagoons where migratory birds abound, just a few minutes from the village of Sidi Bou Saïd and the ruins of the famous city of Carthage.

 - Practice, golf academy
 - The restaurant with terrace and lounge bar not only host golfers but also business meetings.
- Address : Rue 13 Août, Chotrana 2, La Soukra

GOOD to know

International airport Tunis-Carthage 15 minutes from the city centre and 20 minutes from Gammarth. Numerous hotels across all categories in Tunis, resort hotels in Gammarth, guesthouses in the medina and Sidi Bou Saïd. To visit: the medina of Tunis (a World Heritage site), the ruins of Carthage, the village of Sidi Bou Saïd, the Bardo museum and its exceptional collections. Festivals: Jazz in Carthage, Musiqât (neo-traditional music) in Sidi Bou Saïd, Musical October in Carthage (classical music), Dream City (contemporary art) in Tunis, Festival of the Medina (Sufi and Andalusian music), Festival of Carthage (theatre and variety show)...

THE RESIDENCE Golf Course

- 18 hole course: Par 72, 6451 m
- Architect: Robert Trent Jones II
- 80 position practice on grass (putting greens, pitching greens, bunkers)
- Courses, beginners and perfecting classes
- Cart, trolley and golf bag rental, on-course snack and refreshment service.
- The 4000 m² in area Clubhouse offers a restaurant with terrace, bar and swimming pool. Pro shop, meeting room and television room.

This completely exotic and beautiful course is all thanks to Robert Trent Jones II, renowned for his expertise in using the environment to its best advantage. Perfectly integrated with the landscape, it offers views across vast expanses of water with shimmering reflections. The water obstacles and see breeze represent a constant challenge for even the most experienced players. After your game, enjoy the luxurious clubhouse of a contemporary style, or the countless attractions offered by the region: lounges in La Marsa or in Carthage, art galleries or mint tea in Sidi Bou Saïd, nightclubs in Gammarth...

HAMMAMET

Golf Citrus

Major seaside resort and small city with authentic charm, Hammamet has TWO LARGE GOLF COURSES running through lush green hills, with the sea on the horizon. The first 45 hole complex in Tunisia, CITRUS GOLF is one of the country's favourites; its route favourably takes advantage of the natural characteristics of the site. The other golf course in Hammamet, YASMINE VALLEY GOLF COURSE, is an 18 hole course of great finesse, which offers facilities adapted for all levels of play. Just a few minutes from the courses, you can enjoy Yasmine Hammamet's Marina to the south of the city, and the entertainment on offer in the resort: watersports, beach clubs, sea cruises, clubs, parasailing, thalasso treatments or restaurant outings... and of course not forgetting the numerous excursions to visit fortresses, villages or archaeological sites.

YASMINE Valley Golf Course

- 18 hole course, Par 71 5850 m (back tees)
- 9 hole executive course
- Extension under construction of a second 18 hole course
- Architect: Ronald Fream (Nicklaus Design for the extension)
- Located near the entrance, the Clubhouse overlooks the whole area and offers a great panoramic view from its terrace. In a relaxed atmosphere, it offers a bar, restaurant, changing rooms, a pro shop, equipment rental and master caddies.

Designed by Ronald Fream, this course is in the typical style of the Californian architect, with spectacularly shaped bunkers and creative usage of water obstacles. It runs between the hills and offers breathtaking views of the magnificent Mediterranean landscape, thanks to topographical features judiciously used to their best advantage. The facilities can be adapted to any level of play, from beginners to the highest levels of difficulty.

Golf Citrus: Les Oliviers course

GOLF Citrus

- Les Oliviers Course (The Olive Trees): 18 hole Par 72, 6106 metres (Men), 5290 metres (Women)
- La Forêt Course (The Forest): 18 hole Par 72, 6066 metres (Men), 5235 metres (Women)
- 9 hole Executive Course: Par 28, 1121 metres
- Practice grounds 350 metres long and 120 mats (putting greens, pitching greens, bunkers)
- Lessons and courses
- Area: 173 ha
- Architect: Ronald Fream
- The Clubhouse offers changing rooms and showers, a bar and an a la carte restaurant as well as caddies and a Pro shop.

Golf Citrus offers two stimulating golf courses to satisfy players at any level of skill. The first, "Les Oliviers", represents a challenge for any handicap with its wide fairways dotted with olive trees and sand traps. Bad shots will be penalised by the ever-present breeze and the greens protected by bunkers. The second course, "La Forêt", will interest experienced players. Hilly terrain, surrounded by a forest of pine trees and designed to best use the dominant winds (northeasterly and northwesterly), it has blind holes and undulating greens protected by bunkers and water obstacles.

Golf Citrus: La Forêt course

GOOD to know

Visit Hammamet, its medina with narrow alleys, its Hispano-Turkish fort, the Medina Mediterranea theme park bringing an Oriental medina to life. Dine in an Italian trattoria, a chic marina restaurant or a Tunisian restaurant on the roof of the medina. Dance in the electrifying events with celebrity DJs in the city's nightclubs. In the surrounding area, visit the fort of Kelibia, the town of Nabeul famous for its pottery, the archaeological sites of Kerkouane and Thuburbo Majus ...

Hammamet and its neighbour Nabeul are well-known coastal resorts, well-stocked in hotels across all categories. To the south of the city, the integrated resort of Yasmine Hammamet offers modern hotels, a world-class marina and numerous attractions. The older hotels retain many benefits: proximity to the city, charming landscaped gardens, sumptuous beaches. Hammamet is connected via motorway to the international airports of Tunis-Carthage (70 km) and Enfidha-Hammamet (50 km).

SOUSSE and Monastir

Palm Links
Golf Course

South of Hammamet, Sousse and Monastir are simultaneously lively seaside resorts, historical cities and great golfing destinations.

In Sousse, EL KANTAOUI GOLF COURSE is the most popular golf course in Tunisia; its two championship courses run between the beach and a high hill, in the heart of the integrated resort of Port El Kantaoui, famous for its Andalusian charm, its marina and its lively atmosphere. Just thirty or so kilometers away, Monastir has two golf courses. The FLAMINGO GOLF COURSE, completely renovated, is decidedly technical and athletically challenging; its fairways span ravines, its greens slope gently over ponds. PALM LINKS, however, is a flat course in the Scottish Links style, between olive and palm trees, with three seafront holes.

- 1 The Sousse medina.
- 2 Port El Kantaoui.
- 3 Ribat of Monastir.

El Kantaoui Golf Course: the Sea Course

EL KANTAOUI Golf Course

- Panorama Course : 18 hole Par 72, 6045 metres
- Sea Course : 18 hole Par 72, 6253 metres
- Area : 132 ha
- Architect : Ronald Fream
- Training grounds with putting-green and practice areas
- The Clubhouse offers changing rooms, a bar-restaurant with panoramic terrace as well as a Pro shop, caddies, carts and equipment rental.

Between the beach and a high hill, this golf course offers a panoramic view across the whole resort of Port El Kantaoui. It has two courses perfectly suited to its location: the Sea Course, which runs between the hotels and extends as far as the beach, and the Panorama Course, which follows the raised features of the terrain before dropping down again. Throughout your game, you will find old preserved wells, an ancient irrigation canal, lakes and illuminated fountains. You will pass among century-old trees – olive, pomegranate, palm and eucalyptus – with several new recently planted trees adding to their number.

El Kantaoui Golf Course: the Panorama Course

GOOD to know

In Sousse, visit the archaeological museum (mosaics) and the vast medina, superbly preserved, with its crenellated walls and numerous medieval monuments. In Monastir, the seafront esplanade, souks and great Ribat (fortress and place of religious retreat) with its museum and panoramic view from the watchtower. Nearby, don't miss the legendary Kairouan and the amphitheatre of El Jem, one of the most impressive Roman monuments in the world. Take advantage of the numerous tourist attractions of these two resorts: scuba diving, excursions, restaurants, casinos, lounge bars, nightclubs ...

Sousse, Port El Kantaoui and Monastir are some of the largest and most important seaside resorts in Tunisia and offer a large range of hotels and aparthotels across all categories. International airports in Monastir (20 km from Sousse) and Enfidha (35 km from Port El Kantaoui, 70 km from Monastir). Marinas in Port El Kantaoui and Monastir.

Flamingo Golf Course

FLAMINGO Golf Course

- 18 hole course: Par 72, 6402 m
- Architect: Ronald Fream
- Golf academy
- Training grounds
- The Clubhouse offers a pro shop, a restaurant, salon and bar with a majestic view across the green. Equipment rental, caddies.

Designed by Ronald Fream, the Flamingo Golf Course is located on a plateau of century-old olive trees overlooking the whole bay. This course is famous for its exceptional design, demanding precision and power to pass through its many traps unscathed. Undulating or sloped greens, lakes, bunkers, cliffs all add spice to the game. The course was completely renovated while still maintaining its original configuration.

Palm Links Golf Course

.....
31

PALM LINKS Golf Course

- 18 hole course: Par 72, 6076 m
- Architect: Chris Pitman
- Golf Academy
- Training grounds
- The Clubhouse offers a bar, restaurant, pro shop with rental equipment, caddies and golf carts.

Designed by New Zealand architect Chris Pitman, this golf course is in the flat Scottish Links style. It lies among olive and palm trees, dotted with 73 bunkers and four lakes. Players will particularly enjoy the three seafront holes, specifically the fourteenth guarded by the sea along its left-hand side and an enormous bunker on the right.

DJERBA

Djerba Golf Club

DJERBA GOLF CLUB extends alongside the sea and sand dunes, in a setting typical of this sunny island of the Tunisian Deep South.

The golf club is made up of THREE 9 HOLE COURSES that allow combinations suitable for any level of play. Around you, the soft swaying of palm trees and enchanting light takes you deep into the heart of Djerba's unique atmosphere... But the narrowness of certain fairways, the sandy roughs and the strong sea breeze make the game less serene than it may first appear! While Djerba seduces visitors with its landscapes and its still-practiced traditions, it is also a destination with numerous tourist attractions: kitesurfing, dancing in nightclubs, dining in the harbour, outings into the Sahara...

- Area: 90 hectares
- Architect: Martin Hawtree
- The Clubhouse is built in the Djerba style and has a restaurant, a salon bar and a large terrace bar overlooking the course. Pro shop, equipment rental, lessons.

GOOD to know

Djerba is served by an international airport and a high quality road network. The island has numerous hotels across all categories, along with guesthouses and rural lodging in the villages or countryside. Must see: the street art exhibition at Djerbahood, the Ghriba synagogue, the little town of Houmt-Souk (souks, medieval fortress, fishing port), the potter's village of Guellala, the recreation centre "Djerba Explore" (crocodile breeding, museum etc). Djerba also offers a casino, a bowling alley and nightclubs.

TOZEUR

At the edge of the desert, majestic scenery and Saharan temperatures combine to offer those who discover GOLF OASIS in Tozeur an unforgettable experience. The immense palm grove, one of the most beautiful in Tunisia, forms the backdrop. The town of Tozeur, desert medina built from sand-coloured bricks, is a short distance away, surrounded by desert plateaus, small oases and the vast salt plain of the Chott el-Jerid; the sand dunes of the desert are just a few kilometres away. Golf Oasis extends across a piece of land dotted with canyons and planted with thousands of palm trees. The obstacles in the form of stone walls add spice to the game, this course demands dexterity and concentration. MAJESTIC NATURE, the ochre colours of the sands and rocks, green lawn and blue sky... a rare combination for a UNIQUE EXPERIENCE.
